

Need For Speed Space

The Next Iteration in the Critically Acclaimed Series!

The Game:

- You're in space, huge floating racetracks, you need to beat the rest of the players and/or ai to the finish line
- Asteroid's, solar flares and lasers are all obstacle's that will make the race a high octane and hazardous setting, disassociating our game apart from the average run of the mill racing games.
- Don't drive off the edge into the voids of space.

World Background:

Unlike classical racing game environments, you are in space dealing with all the dangers that come with the territory.

Set in space using hovercraft cars, sometimes set on various planets.

Fundamentals

- High speed races against other players
- Various hazards and obstacles requiring fast reaction times
- Damaging other vehicles with lasers and other weapons
- Online Multiplayer with solid connections

Gameplay

- The race will start with all players lined up, everyone starts with a certain amount of weapons at their disposal, and it's up to the player to not only race skilfully but also use their weapons strategically, all while dodging asteroids and solar flares

Key features

Game includes an open world segment.

Intense gameplay with high consequences for error

Multiplayer, free to play, ranking system, fun!
